

Quiz #11

Crying Rape: False Rape Accusations

1. How do you define rape?
2. Why in the past were women's rape allegations not believed?
3. What may lead a woman to falsely accuse a man of rape?
4. T/F Not all rape reports classified as unfounded are in fact false.
5. T/F It is rare for a rape charge to be dismissed or result in acquittal.
6. T/F Nearly half of rape case are never brought to trial.
7. T/F The incidence of false rape accusation is less than 7%.
8. How can alcohol contribute to unwanted sex?
9. What happened to former high school football star Brian Banks?
10. How is "Yes means Yes" different from "No means No?"
11. T/F Men wrongly accused of rape are victims as much as women (or men) who are sexually assaulted.

Rape in India: Epidemic of Sexual Violence Against Women and Children

1. T/F 75% of rape victims in Mumbai, India are under 18.
2. T/F About 9% of rapes are committed by fathers raping their own daughters.
3. What challenges might a dependent child face if she brings a rape charge against an adult member of her family or community?
)
4. T/F In India few rapists are acquitted.
5. T/F The marginalization of women and girls in India is a major factor in them being subjected to sexual violence.
6. What problems are posed by laws that prohibit all sexual activity for children under 18?
7. How might India's tradition of arranged marriage contribute to high rates of sexual assault?

India's Marital Rape Crisis Reaches Tragic Proportions

1. T/F Very few Indian men admit to forcing sex onto their wives.
2. T/F In India it is illegal for a man to rape his wife.
3. What happened following the 2012 gang rape of a 23-year old college student on a moving Delhi bus?
4. T/F Women are 40 times more likely to be assaulted by their husband than a stranger.
5. In which countries is rape in marriage legal?
a. China b. Morocco c. Spain d. United States e. Singapore f. Mexico
6. T/F Sexual violence in marriage is rarely prosecuted in America

7. What factors are referred to as reasons to as reasons for why marital rape cannot be criminalized in India?

a. poverty b. illiteracy c. social custom d. Western feminism e. religious beliefs

8. T/F Male privilege is deeply internalized by both Indian men and women.

9. T/F 65% of Indian women believe that there are times when a woman deserves to be beaten by her husband.

10. T/F Indian women are taught that sex is a duty they have to perform for their husbands.

11. T/F Marriage in India is regarded as an alliance between families promising economic and social security for women in exchange for sexual availability, fidelity, housekeeping and childbirth and care.

12. T/F Divorce can be granted in India is a wife denies her husband sex.