

Gender, Sex and Culture
Dr. Leanna Wolfe

Spring 2016

Quiz #1

1. How many points are needed to earn an "A" for the Option you have chosen? _____
2. Is it possible to pass the class without doing the written assignments? _____
3. Who can attend the Sex, Culture and Society Salons?
4. What are ways that students can earn extra credit for this class?
5. What is the maximum amount of extra credit point that can be earned?
6. What are the five fields of Anthropology?
7. T/F All humans have culture.
8. T/F All cultural behaviors are learned.
9. What is participant observation?
10. Research Anthropologists recognize they have obligations to three sets of people, who are they?
11. What is a cultural identity kit?
12. What is culture shock? Give an example out of your own life.
13. T/F An arm's length is the proper social distance for humans.
14. What is an example of non-verbal communication?

15. What is sex? Should activities apart from penile-vaginal intercourse be considered sex?
16. T/F Oral sex is most common amongst people with limited formal education.
17. Why do North Americans have so many words for sex?
18. Should males be circumcised?
19. What activities do you consider cheating?
20. What is the primary function of marriage?
21. What rights can marriage afford?
22. T/F Marriage is a cultural universal.
23. T/F On occasion Cheyenne men married transgendered (two-spirit) men.
24. What percent of adult Americans have never been married?
a. 20% b. 30% c. 43% d. 62% e. 77%
25. What percent of Americans live alone today?
a. 15% b. 21% c. 27% d. 35% e. 50%
26. What does the category "single" refer to?
27. Contrast the benefits of endogamy vs. those of exogamy.
28. T/F The incest taboo leads to exogamy.
29. T/F Humans largely marry for love.
30. T/F Romantic love is relatively rare amongst human cultures.
31. T/F People pretty much want the same things in marriage whether it is in India, Africa, or America.

32. T/F Sororate continues marriages alliances between two groups after the death of the wife.
33. T/F Serial monogamy is prohibited by law in most states of the United States.
34. T/F Divorce is found only in industrial societies
35. T/F Children are most troubled by their parents divorcing when they've been witness to little or no conflict between their parents.
36. One man married to two sisters at the same time is a case of:
a. the levirate b. the sororate c. fraternal polyandry d. sororal polygyny e. anticipatory levirate
37. T/F There is no amount of masturbation that is abnormal.
38. Is anal sex dangerous? Is it immoral?
39. T/F Most sexually experienced women are able to reach orgasm through penilevaginal intercourse.
40. Do you talk to your parents about sex? What have they told you?
41. Is pre-marital virginity important in your culture/religion?
42. T/F All societies have rules regarding the ways sexual behavior should be expressed.
43. Are girls more likely to be called sluts than boys? Why?
44. What kinds of sexual information, resources and services are now available on the Internet? Have you used any of them?
45. Should divorce be made more difficult in America?

46. Should gay marriage be legalized?
47. Should abortion stay legal? Should it be restricted in any way?
48. Should teens be able to obtain contraception without parental permission? Should teens be able to purchase the “morning after pill” without a prescription?
49. What is sex addiction?